Sandra Garrette honored

Sandra Garrette of Rt. 5, Amherst, a senior at Amherst County High School, is one of 500 finalists for a Jostens Foundation Scholarship. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Martin, Jr. of Appomattox, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle N. Garrette, Sr. Sandra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Garrette, Jr.

Miss Garrette was one of more than 14,000 high school students throughout the United States who applied for the award. The 200 scholarship winners will be announced this spring. Selection of the finalists and winners is based on outstanding achievements in school and community affairs, meaningful work experiences and academic excellence.

The Citizens Scholarship Foundation of America, Manchester, N.H., as administrators for The Jostens Foundation Scholarship Program, has selected the finalists and will select the winners by late April. Finalists who do not receive scholarships will receive Certificates of Recognition.

Commenting on the scholarship program, Don C. Lein, president of The Jostens Foundation, said, "The Jostens Foundation is committed to developing quality education for today's young people and responding to the needs of our nation's youth."

Funds for The Jostens Foundation are provided annually by a major support program of Jostens, Inc., a Minneapolis-based manufacturer of custom-designed products which motivate individuals and recognize achievements in business, education and athletics.

Sandra has been accepted at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville and plans to study nursing.

Club sells mugs

The Appomattox County High School Science Club recently presented senior Kevin Ferguson with a "Raider Mug."

The Science Club has been selling Raider Mugs for $4 each. The mugs feature a picture of a Raider on the front and back, and the words "1982 District Football Champions" on the back.

The Science Club still has a small supply left, available for sale to the public. Proceeds from the sale benefit the Science Club.
